What is Dog Treat Biscuit Making Machine

Dog Treat Biscuit Making Machine can make various shape green biscuit and weight through roller printed. The split blade is equipment with adjusting device; user can adjust according to requirement. The specially designed roller overcomes the phenomenon of knife wear unevenly. The green body made by this machine can bake through hot air rotary ovens or tunnel stoves.

Pet biscuit making machine/Dog treats machine/Pet snack production line is specially designed to produce pet daily and healthy food, also animal feed for every kind of animals. Normally using grains powder as main material, mixing with meat, bones powder, fish powder as a flavoring Through Adopting pre-conditioning system for raw material, it can increase capacity and reduce power consumption.

This line would satisfy different demands for capacity and quality. At the same time, we focus on palatability and scientific nutritional proportion, which make pet food more easily digested and absorbed. On base of this line, we would like to reach a multi-level and comprehensive cooperation with every client in this trade.