

What is Biodegradable Drinking Straws Extruder?

Naturally degradable alcohol consumption straws extruder is made up of text, head device, cooling down system, traction device, with a variety of models such as solitary shade extrusion line, two shade, and 2 shade co-extrusion line, three-color extrusion line, etc.

naturally degradable alcohol consumption straws extruder extensive application: alcohol consumption straws making, lollipop stick, cotton stick, clinical tube, all type of playthings tube, and so on.

Attributes of naturally degradable drinking straws extruder: made from an alloy (38CrMoAL) by nitriding process, high stamina, and also wear-resting. And it has the excellent self-cleaning capability and also does not need to discharge or clean the barrel and also screw when toasting or changing of materials. It embraces a speed-adjusted converter on the feeding system, extrusion system, and too reducing system—food quality stainless-steel double screw feeding device warranties durable materials feeding in the entire food process.